～Introduction～

Mozambique has experienced a civil war after the independence in 1975, which has lasted for 17 years. After the war, a movement called TAE (Transforming Arms into Tools / Transformação de Armas em Enxadas) project has been implemented, not to make the same mistake again. The artworks of “Arms into Art” use the collected arms and it is a unique way of peace-making. What do you think of the message?
